Insurance broking: How it works for you

Tailoring insurance products to your needs

Before our negotiations with insurers commence on your behalf, we will help establish your insurance requirements. To do this we may need to gather and collate risk information about you. Please see the Duty of Disclosure section for more information about this.

Quoting and placing insurance on your behalf

Once we have established your needs, we will identify the local and overseas markets to be approached to determine the most competitive insurance coverage for you. Your JLT Client Risk Adviser will provide you with expert advice to help you to make an informed decision.

When you have made your decision, we will ensure that your instructions are implemented quickly and efficiently. Any inability to fulfil your instructions will be brought to your attention immediately.

Whom do we act for when we provide services?

We normally provide financial services on your behalf. Occasionally, where we have negotiated facilities to the benefit of our clients, we may act as agent of the insurer and not for you. For example, we may have an authority to arrange an insurance policy under a binding arrangement with the insurer, which means we can enter into the contract on the insurer's behalf. When we do this, we will specifically advise you.

Your invoice and payment terms

Your invoice will state the amount of total premium, statutory charges plus any fees you need to pay and the date on which they are payable. Our usual terms of payment are 14 days from the date of our invoice. Failure to pay on time may result in the insurer having the right to cancel the policy.

Your insurance documents

When your insurance arrangements are complete, we will confirm this with you in writing and will forward the appropriate policy documentation to you. This will provide you with any evidence of the insurance held you may need in the future. The policy or JLT document will comprehensively set out the contractual terms and conditions of the insurance.

You should check the document and satisfy yourself that it is entirely in accordance with your understanding and instructions. Just let your JLT Client Risk Adviser know if you have any concerns.

Claims Services: How they work for you

How to make a claim

You should notify us of any claims as soon as you can (except where your policy provides for notifying your insurer directly). If you have a third party claim you must not admit liability. It is very important that you observe all conditions in your policy about the reporting and handling of claims – failure to do so could lead to your claim not being paid.

When we receive a claim notification from you, we will notify the insurer of the claim in a timely fashion. We will confirm with you in writing when the notification has been made. We will then promptly let you know any information, comments or advice received from the insurer about your claim.

Your JLT Client Risk Adviser can provide you with any additional information you need.

Managing your claim promptly and efficiently

We are committed to providing you with prompt and efficient claims service:

- we will diligently pursue the settlement and collection of any claim under your insurance policy
- we will always seek to secure the fullest recovery possible
- we will keep you informed of the progress of the claim
- we will provide you with written confirmation of the acceptance of the claim and the amount of settlement agreed by the insurer.

Claims under Mutual Schemes

Where JLT administer a Mutual Scheme which includes the handling of all claims, then each loss reported by a Member will be managed by our qualified and experienced claims officers, who will:

- negotiate with third parties
- appoint solicitors or loss assessors where appropriate
- negotiate the most advantageous terms
- arrange speedy resolution/settlement
- administer all aspects of your claim.

Claims fees

If the services we provide include handling and/or negotiating the settlement of any claims, there will be no additional charge for up to twenty (20) hours work provided in handling and /or negotiating the settlement of any one claim or series of related claims arising from the one originating cause. JLT will enter into a separate arrangement with you in respect of any claims handling and/or negotiating services which exceed twenty (20) hours work as outlined above and such services shall be subject to the payment of additional remuneration.

Claims Made policy

Some policies we arrange may be subject to "Claims Made" provisions. This means that claims, or possible claims, must be notified to the insurer while the policy is current. Such policies will not provide indemnity for claims, or possible claims, notified after the policy expires. We will advise you when your policy is a Claims Made policy.

Security Measures

The security of your insurance is important to us. To ensure our Australian clients' needs are met the Group's Counterparty Market Security Committee (the Committee) is responsible for monitoring the security measures used by JLT. The Committee reviews security on an ongoing basis, allowing our selection of insurers to be based on our knowledge and experience of the relevant market sector and the financial standing of the insurer.

The Committee monitors the financial standing of insurers using information in the public domain. We endeavour only to use insurers who are financially secure. However, the financial standing or condition of any insurer can change after your policy has been arranged. We can accept no responsibility for the financial standing or performance of any insurer and will not be responsible in any circumstances in the event that they are unable to meet their obligations to you.

Where we advise you of an insurer's 'Standard & Poor's' (or equivalent) credit rating this does not apply in relation to any insurances arranged for you as a Retail Client as that term is defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

Our Remuneration

How are we paid for the services we provide?

As an insurance broker, there are several ways we can be paid. In general, our principal remuneration for arranging insurance in your behalf is either by way of commission paid by the Insurer and/or a fee including a service fee and an administration fee to be paid by you:

- Commission paid to us by the insurer as a percentage of the insurance premium paid by you before stamp duty, fire services levy, GST and any other government charges, taxes, fees or levies. It will vary depending on the insurer and the policy and we will advise you of the range of commission upon request.

OR

- a Fee

OR

- a combination of Commission paid by the Insurer and a Fee.

Commission and Fees are earned for the policy period. We are entitled to retain all commission and fees covering the full policy period for policies placed by us on your behalf, even where an insurance policy is amended terminated or otherwise cancelled.

We may also charge you (with your agreement) a fee for any special advisory or additional claims-related services.

In addition to the fees above the Group may also receive other types of income from insurers, including:

- interest earned on insurance monies passing through our bank accounts
- expense allowances or commissions from insurers for managing binding authorities and other similar facilities (including any claims which may arise under such arrangements). If we obtain the assistance of another broker or Associated Entity (as that term is defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)) in order to carry out your instructions to arrange contracts of insurance, the other broker or Associated entity may receive additional remuneration from the relevant insurer or charge a fee to you.
- profit commissions or profit shares paid by insurers on certain classes of business
- administrative service fees or expense reimbursements for some services we provide to insurers as part of providing them business or through the claims process.

In line with our policy of openness and transparency we will, when requested, endeavour to calculate and disclose the amount or a reasonable estimate of any additional income which we may receive from the above and any other sources in relation to insurances we arrange. This also applies to any non-monetary remuneration we may receive from insurers such as gifts, entertainment and other incidental benefits where such remuneration could impact in any way on the services we provide to you.

We may also act as reinsurance broker to arrange facultative or treaty reinsurance for insurers with whom we have placed your insurances and we receive additional remuneration by way of commission or administrative fee for such services.

These reinsurance placements are separate and distinct contracts where we act as the agent of the insurers concerned.

Where we act as managers of a Mutual Scheme or Discretionary Trust, our fee is negotiated according to the services to be provided.

JLT's salaries, commissions and fees

We sometimes pay bonuses to our staff for enhancing our business by providing excellent service to you. Other than that, our employees receive an annual salary, but do not generally receive a commission on any specific advice offered to you – this helps make sure JLT's advice is geared to providing the most appropriate insurance and risk management services for you.

In some cases another person or company may introduce you to us. In return, we sometimes share our commission or fees with them, or pay them an agreed referral fee.

Does JLT have any relationships or associations which might influence the provision of our financial services?

We are committed to ensuring you receive top quality advice. To help make sure of this, we endeavour to avoid any associations or relationships that are capable of influencing our advice to you, except those from which we may receive remuneration or benefits already declared to you and/or where the coverage terms benefit you.

It will vary depending on the policy and we will advise you of the range of commission upon request. KEY may also receive from the insurer a share of the underwriting profits generated from the business introduced to the insurer. All commissions and fees include GST and are incorporated within the cost of the product.

We will advise you when your insurances are placed through KEY.

We may on 21 days' written notice transfer our rights and obligations under the agreement between us for the provision of the services as set out in this document to another company within the Group which is able to perform the services in accordance with this document.

We may also subcontract to another company within the Group but this will be on the basis that we remain responsible for the services which we and our subcontractors provide.

Limitation of Liability

1. In no event shall either party to this engagement be liable for any: (a) indirect;(b) incidental; (c) special;(d) Consequential loss; (e) any loss of profits (other than that derived from JLT'S remuneration); (f) loss of revenue; (g) anticipated savings; (h) loss of data; or (i) loss of goodwill or reputation; arising out of or in connection with any Services provided by JLT and/or JLT's Associated Entities and their representatives (including but not limited to JLT's or their employees, agents, consultants and authorised representatives (collectively the "Relevant Persons"). Consequential loss means any loss that does not flow directly and naturally from the relevant breach or circumstances, and which could not reasonably have been in the contemplation of both parties as a probable result of the breach or the circumstances at the time the parties entered into these terms.
2. The aggregate liability of JLT and the Relevant Persons combined, arising out of or in connection with the provision of Services shall not exceed AUD$1 million.
3. The provisions in clauses 1 and 2 apply to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law for all events giving rise to any liability on JLT's or the Relevant Persons' part, whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence) or on any other basis, but do not apply to any liability arising as a result of fraud or wilful default by JLT and/or the Relevant Persons.

4. The provisions in clause 2 do not apply in relation to any Services supplied to you as a Retail Client.
5. JLT's liability will further be limited to the extent it or the Relevant Persons' conduct causes the loss, damage or expense. If you or your representatives caused or contributed to the loss, damage or expense, JLT's liability and/or that of the Relevant Persons will be reduced to the extent which takes into account both your and your representatives' conduct.
6. You will and you will further ensure that any entities for which you act as representative in relation to the Services performed by JLT indemnifies JLT and the Relevant Persons against all demands, claims, proceedings, costs or damages made against JLT by a third party connected with the Services.
7. JLT is not liable to you in respect of loss or damage caused by any matter beyond JLT's reasonable control.
8. JLT and its JLT's Associated Entities operate as an independent contractor and not in any other capacity, including as a fiduciary. Any provision of this engagement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction is ineffective as to that jurisdiction to the extent of the prohibition or unenforceability. This does not invalidate the remaining provisions of the engagement nor does it affect the validity or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction. JLT is unable to provide insurance or reinsurance broking, risk consulting, claims or other services or provide any benefit to the extent that the provision of such services or benefit would violate applicable law or expose JLT or its Associated Entities to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under UN Security Council Resolutions or under other trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations.

Other Important Information

Your Duty of Disclosure

The Insurance Contracts Act 1984 sets out certain duties you must understand before you enter into a contract of insurance with an insurer.

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. You have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until the insurer agrees to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You acknowledge that this duty is not limited to answering specific questions that may be asked by JLT or the insurer.

Also, we may give you a copy of anything you have previously told us and ask you to tell us if it has changed. If we do this, you must tell us about any change or tell us that there is no change. If you do not tell us about a change to something you have previously told us, you will be taken to have told us that there is no change.

You do not need to tell us anything that: reduces the risk insured, or is common knowledge, or the insurer knows or should know as an insurer; or the insurer waives your duty to tell them about.

f you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, the insurer may cancel your contract or reduce the amount it will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed

If you are in any doubt as to the extent of the duty of disclosure or whether a piece of information ought to be disclosed, just contact your JLT Client Risk Adviser.

Keeping you up to date

From time to time JLT may offer you information about products and services which may be of interest to you. Just let your JLT Client Risk Adviser know if you do not wish to receive this information.

Making it easy: Internet, e-mail and other forms of communication

Using e-commerce to improve our service

We always seek to place and service your insurance and other needs in the most efficient manner. Increasingly this is now best achieved by electronic trading. Where possible, we will exchange information with you, the insurer and other parties connected with the insurance or service using e-mail, through private insurance market networks and through web-enabled systems accessed via the internet. This includes Disclosure notices (including Financial Services Guides and Product Disclosure Statements) which will be sent to you via e-mail or links to documents on our websites etc. If you have provided your e-mail address to us we will use that e-mail address for all correspondence and disclosure notices.

Should you not wish to deal with us electronically please advise us and we will update our records accordingly.

Whilst we understand the convenience that e-mail provides to individuals and businesses it is important to remember that e-mail has some potential drawbacks in the provision of insurance services. There is no guarantee of the confidentiality, completeness, accuracy or receipt of an e-mail. While these are problems in themselves, please be aware they may also influence the acceptance of particular e-mails as evidence in a legal matter.

We accept no responsibility if information sent by you to us by e-mail is incomplete or corrupted. We will also be entitled to act upon any instruction from you received by e-mail which reasonably appears to have been sent by you.

Using mobile phone text messages (SMS)

We are able to communicate with you in limited circumstances by means of mobile phone text message (SMS). Any messages or information sent by SMS will not be acted upon until such time as they have been confirmed by alternative means.

Protecting you: Avoiding conflicts of interest

In all areas of business, conflicts of interest sometimes arise. JLT has designed efficient procedures to assist in the handling of such situations to ensure your protection at all times.

Where we act as the agent for two or more clients involved in the same (or related) loss situation, we will advise the clients involved of any conflicting interests. We will then take immediate steps to segregate the claim servicing functions for each of the clients. These steps will normally include the assignment of different JLT Client Risk Advisers within JLT and the establishment of direct communication procedures.

Should a situation arise where our own interests conflict with any duty we owe to you, we will not proceed until we have fully informed you of the position and you have provided your informed consent on the manner in which we will proceed. We understand that for conflicting interest situations you may wish to secure the services of another broker to assist you with matters.

Our commitment to your privacy

JLT is committed to the protection of your privacy. JLT abides by the Australian Privacy Principles, which set out standards for the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information.

You can examine JLT's Privacy Policy on our website www.au.jlt.com, or by obtaining a copy from your JLT Client Risk Adviser or the JLT Privacy Officer.

Dealing responsibly with your money

We treat your money seriously. If we receive a premium from you before the policy has incepted, we always keep your money in a separate trust account in accordance with the relevant laws. Your money can only be withdrawn from the trust account to refund you or to pay the insurer when your insurance has incepted. You may agree that the money you pay is not held in trust on your behalf, but you must provide us with your consent in writing.

Understanding Average Clauses and Under-Insurance

Home building and contents, fire, business interruption, industrial special risks and other policies often contain an "Average Clause". This means that you should insure for full value - which may be replacement, re-instatement, indemnity or market value depending on the type of insurance cover arranged. If you are under-insured your claim may be reduced in proportion to the amount of under-insurance.

Understanding Indemnity, Hold Harmless Agreements, Contracting Out and Removal of Subrogation Rights

You may prejudice your right to a claim if, without prior agreement from your insurer, you agree to the removal of subrogation rights that could prevent the insurer from recovering the loss from a third party. You should also be cautious about "contracting out", "indemnity" or "hold-harmless" clauses which are often found in leases, licences and contracts for maintenance, supply, construction and repair and which generally require you to voluntarily assume liabilities in excess of liabilities imposed by statute or common law. If you are in any doubt, you should forward a copy of these contracts to your JLT Client Risk Adviser.

Insuring the interests of other parties

If you require the interest of another party to be covered by the policy, you must request this. Most policies will attempt to exclude indemnity to other parties (such as mortgagees, lessors, principals, etc) unless their interest is expressly noted on the policy.

Understanding several liability

Where your insurance cover is provided by more than one insurer it is important to note that in the event of a claim, each insurer is only responsible to the extent of their individual subscription. There is no obligation for that insurer to make up the shortfall of any other insurer in a claim or return premium payment.

Warranties

Where any insurance is subject to a warranty, there must be strict compliance with the stipulation in the warranty. Failure to comply with any warranties may invalidate policy cover and lead to non-payment of claims, even though the breach may not have any bearing on a particular claim.

Unreported Losses

Please let us know whether there are any losses which have occurred that have not been reported to us/insurers, whether you intend making a claim or not.

New Claims

Any quotation we have obtained on your behalf is based on the understanding that there will be no deterioration in the claims experience between the date insurers quoted their terms and the inception date of the cover. If claims do occur during this period, insurers have the right to revise the terms quoted or even withdraw their quotation.

Ensuring your satisfaction: What to do if you have a complaint

We have efficient dispute resolution procedures in place to help you. If you have a complaint, you can communicate it to your JLT Client Risk Adviser in the first instance. Alternatively, you can refer it directly to JLT's Complaints Manager in writing, or by telephone at:

Jardine Lloyd Thompson Pty Ltd
Level 37, 225 George Street, Sydney NSW 2000
Phone: +61 2 9290 8000

We will need you to provide us with comprehensive details to help us investigate your complaint further. All information will be treated in the strictest confidence.

We are a member of the National Insurance Brokers Association (NIBA) and subscribe to the NIBA Code of Conduct and the Insurance Brokers Code of Practice.

We also belong to an approved external dispute resolution scheme designed to provide independent assistance to you, namely the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) (1800 931 678) – a free service for consumers with complaints concerning the financial services industry. If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your complaint is handled by JLT, you can refer your complaint to AFCA. The matter will then be referred by AFCA to the JLT Complaints Manager for further investigation.

IF WE CAN HELP WITH ANYTHING MENTIONED IN THIS BOOKLET, PLEASE DO NOT HESITATE TO CONTACT YOUR JLT CLIENT RISK ADVISER.
